REBUILDING FAITH · 01

Faith can be rebuilt with reverence and honesty. These questions are not here to rush you. They are here to help you bring your real life into the light with God.

START WITH TRUTH

- What do I believe about God right now?
- What feels hard to trust?
- What has God already brought me through?

NAME THE STORY

- Where did my faith feel strongest?
- Where did it feel wounded or neglected?
- What am I afraid will happen if I fully return?

GENTLE RULE

Do not use these questions to condemn yourself. Use them to become honest with God, who already sees you and still calls you near.

THE PART OF MY FAITH I WANT GOD TO REBUILD IS...

---

THE QUESTION I HAVE BEEN AFRAID TO ASK IS...

---

Choose one section at a time. You can answer in writing, pray through it, or use it for a conversation with a mentor, pastor, or trusted friend.

CURIOSITY

- What am I drawn to about Jesus?
- What do I want to understand better?
- Where do I see hunger for God in me?

RESISTANCE

- What makes me pull away?
- What habit keeps dulling my desire?
- Where do I need humility?

HEALING

- What disappointment still aches?
- What grief needs room with God?
- Where do I need wise support?

SCRIPTURE

- Which passages comfort me?
- Which passages challenge me?
- What do I need to read slowly?

COMMUNITY

- Who helps me stay rooted?
- Where do I need accountability?
- How can I serve instead of isolate?

OBEDIENCE

- What is God asking me to lay down?
- What step can I take this week?
- What would faithfulness look like today?

PRAYER

Jesus, thank You for meeting me exactly where I am at, even with all the questions and uncertainties. I pray that You restore what is true, expose what is false, and lead me into a faith that can endure. Amen.

MY NEXT FAITHFUL STEP IS...
